ANGELA RYE TO KEYNOTE AND MODERATE PANEL AT THE N.O.B.E.L WOMEN ANNUAL LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE

Angela Rye, Principal of IMPACT Strategies is set to the deliver the keynote address and moderate a panel at this year's M.O.V.E Conference for N.O.B.E.L Women in Biloxi, MS today.

N.O.B.E.L WOMEN, created in 1985, is a non-profit organization with over 238 active members hailing from 40 states and is composed of current and former black women legislators and appointed officials. N.O.B.E.L serves as a voice for improving the quality of life for Black women in the government sphere through its commitment to hold politicians, stakeholders and governmental agencies accountable.

As an organization dedicated to increasing the amount of Black Women in public office and in leadership roles, this year's conference theme is Motivating, Organizing, Vocalizing, and Empowering The Next Generation of Black Women Leaders.

Although all women have made significant strides in our country, there remains a lot of work to do within the African American community to ensure that women are on equal footing to men while also promoting security for women of today and in future generations.

During the State of Black Women in America Town Hall: Working Together to Find Common Solutions, Ms. Rye and the panel participants will discuss how Black women defy both stereotypes and barriers in the political sphere despite constant attacks throughout the legislature and in the media.
