

New Rules. New Game. High IMPACT.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 18, 2014

Ashley Lawrence joins IMPACT Strategies as Communications Associate

(WASHINGTON, DC)- IMPACT Strategies is pleased to announce its newest member, Ashley Lawrence, who has joined the firm to provide communications services. Originally from Queens, New York, Ashley was first introduced to politics through her college's Government Department Fellowship, where she had the opportunity to intern for America Votes and the Lawyer's Committee for Civil Rights Under Law while studying at the American Political Science Association.

Ashley Lawrence is a Communications Associate with IMPACT Strategies. In 2009, Ms. Lawrence was selected to serve as an intern with the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation, where she was assigned to work in Congressman Charles B. Rangel's office. Subsequently, she served as Legislative Correspondent and Press Assistant with Congressman Gregory W. Meeks.

Ms. Lawrence is an advocate who is dedicated to public service and civil rights issues, with significant legislative, communications, research and nonprofit experience. She has worked with the National Urban League Policy Institute, and previously served as a fellow with the Obama for America campaign.

Ashley is a graduate of Smith College in Northampton, Massachusetts, where she double majored in Government and African American Studies. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. and the Women's Information Network. In her free time, Ashley performs with Songrise, a local all-women's social justice singing group that performs in the Civil Rights protest tradition. Ms. Lawrence resides in Bowie, Maryland and is a member of Reid Temple AME Church North Campus.

IMPACT Strategies is a classic political consulting and government relations boutique firm with a cutting edge approach to achieving our client's goals in the Nation's Capital and beyond.

###